

2024-2025 TALENT GRANT OPPORTUNITY

William and Dorothy Jane Wood Talent Grant

Former University of Alaska President William R. Wood, and his wife, Dorothy Jane, were longtime and ardent supporters of the university. This talent grant endowment was funded and grown for many years through the Crossroads fashion show held by the UAF College of Fellows. The purpose of the grant is to recruit and retain students at the University of Alaska Fairbanks who exhibit exceptional potential for excellence in the fine arts and to encourage them to further develop their talent while enrolled at UAF.

Qualifications

1. Applicant must be an undergraduate or graduate student attending or planning to attend UAF, and must declare an academic major in a program within the Music, Art, or Theatre & Film Departments.
2. Applicant must be in good academic standing with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
3. Applicant must demonstrate talent and potential to excel in the fine arts.

Forfeiture of Award

Recipient will forfeit the talent grant if he/she:

1. Does not enroll in the semester in which the award is to be in effect.
2. Is placed on academic probation.

Award Amount: One or several awards (minimum $1000) will be made at the discretion of the selection committee.

Application Procedure

Students must submit the Wood Talent Grant application form, essay, letter of recommendation, and portfolio/performance samples by 5:00 p.m., April 19th, 2024. Application forms are available at the Music, Art, and Theatre & Film Department offices and the UAF Financial Aid Office. Continuing grants for previous year recipients may be considered, but students must re-apply.
